December 3, 2021 | 12:00 - 14:00

Welcome Ceremony – Aula Magna of the Campus

It's finally here! The official start of the 2021-2022 academic year. So many members of the Department of Law of the University of Turin are excited to welcome you!

The Director of the Department of Law and the Presidents of the bachelor's degree in Global Law and Transnational Legal Studies and of the master's degree in European Legal Studies will provide special greetings, and former and current students will share meaningful words of encouragement.

Meet your classmates of different years, obtain crucial info for experiencing academic and campus life and get a welcome gift prepared for you!

The ceremony will end with official declaration of the start of the new academic year.

We're so glad you're here. Welcome to the international community of the Department of Law of the University of Turin!
